

Literacy Exercise:

Homophones- 'of' or 'off'

Today, we are learning and revising of and off.

The Rules

Of is a preposition, for example. He is one of a kind.

Off can be an adverb, for example, he switched the lights off.

Or it can be a preposition, for example, the silly man drove off the edge of the cliff.

Off Of

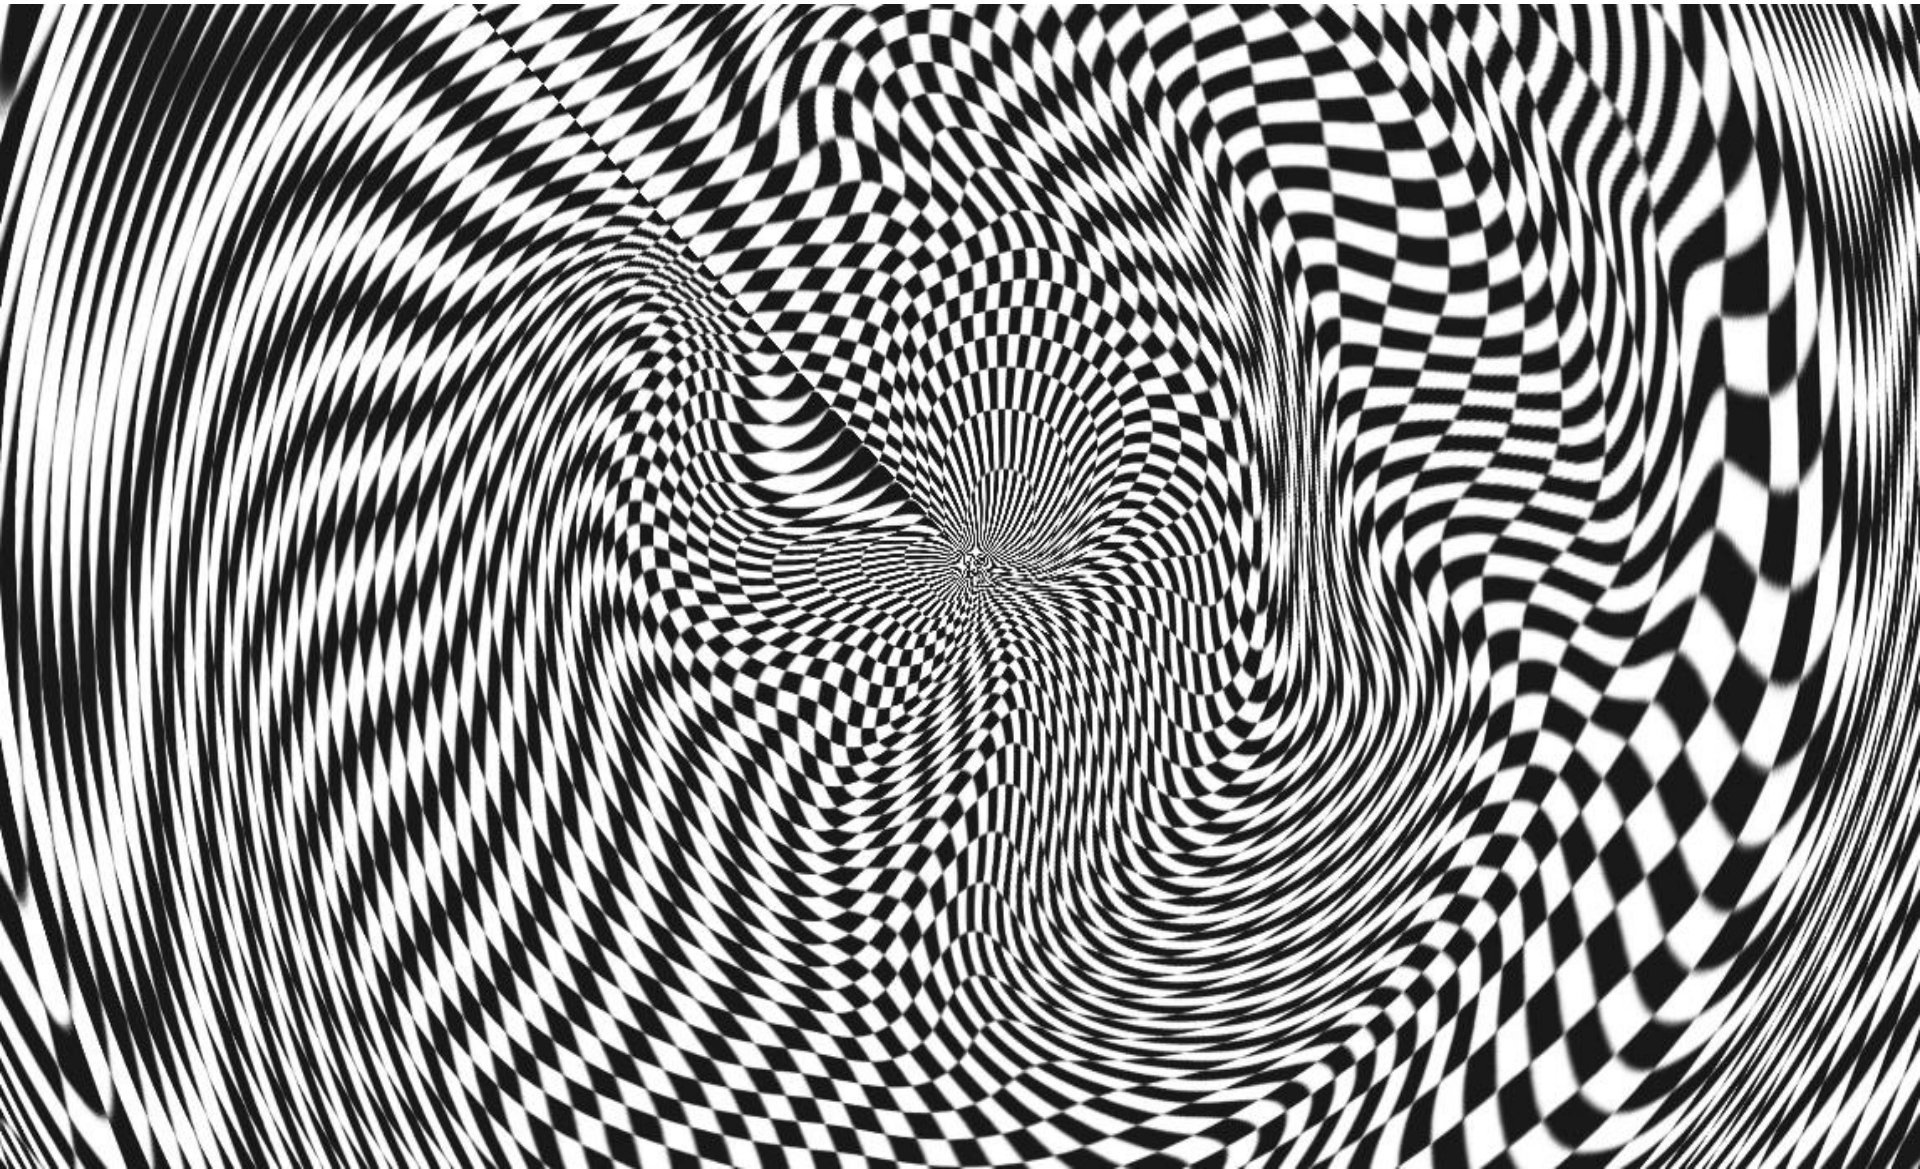

Can you complete the following sentences using of or off?

1. Can I have one kilogram _____ oranges please.
2. I wish you would turn that television_____.
3. I can smell burning has the oven been switched _____?
4. You really should have told me and then you wouldn't get told_____.
5. That's delicious can I have some more _____that please?
6. It's driving me mad please turn it_____ !
7. There was a group_____people staring at me.
8. 'I'd like four pints _____milk', said Milly.
9. Don't do that you're putting me_____.
10. 'Lots _____homework this week', said the teacher.

Off
Of

Can you complete the following sentences using of or off?

11. I have had enough _____ that.
12. Could you help with switch the lights _____ ?
13. Have you got any _____ those left please?
14. Haven't I told you _____ enough today?
15. I am tired _____ working so hard.
16. There is none _____ that left.
17. He took 10% _____ the price.
18. Are you out _____ your mind?
19. That was very mean _____ you.
20. I'll take my hat _____ to you!

Answers

Off Of

Can you complete the following sentences using of or off?

1. Can I have one kilogram of oranges please?
2. I wish you would turn that television off.
3. I can smell burning has the oven been switched off?
4. You really should have told me and then you wouldn't get told off.
5. That's delicious can I have some more of that please?
6. It's driving me mad please turn it off !
7. There was a group of people staring at me.
8. 'I'd like four pints of milk', said Milly.
9. Don't do that you're putting me off.
10. 'Lots of homework this week', said the teacher.

Off Of

Can you complete the following sentences using of or off?

11. I have had enough of that.
12. Could you help with switch the lights off?
13. Have you got any of those left please?
14. Haven't I told you off enough today?
15. I am tired of working so hard.
16. There is none of that left.
17. He took 10% off the price.
18. Are you out of your mind?
19. That was very mean of you.
20. I'll take my hat off to you!

Words invented by Shakespeare

word

Example

bedroom

It was lost in her messy bedroom.