BROUGHT TO YOU BY THE LRC AMBASSADORS

FIRST IMPRESSIONS - Delilah Dirk and the Turkish Lieutenant By Tony Cliff
 - Molly Bowyer 7 FNJ

This book would appeal to any reader with a passion for comics, whether that be Marvel or Maximum Ride. However, to like this comic you have to have a sense of adventure as it is not for the faint hearted. The two main characters are Delilah Dirk (globe trotter) and Erdemoglu Selim (a quiet Turkish Soldier). Although they have very different personalities, they somehow become travelling companions where 'there is never a dull moment.' This book is full of action, fighting, trouble making and mayhem!

GUESS THE BOOK

1. Mr and Mrs Dursley, of number four, Privet Drive, were proud to say that they were perfectly normal, thank you very much!
2. Dorothy lived in the midst of the great Kansas Prairies, with her Uncle Henry, who was a farmer and Aunt Em, Who was a farmer's wife.
3. Look I didn't want to be a half-blood.
4. They sat there by the hole, waiting for the fox to come out. And so far as I know, they are still waiting!

Recommend:

I recommend Beetle Boy

By M.G. Leonard

because it is funny interesting and exciting.

The Book tells the story of Darkus, who gets sent to live with his Uncle Max, when his Father mysteriously disappears.

However Darkus is determined to find his father, despite what the press and police say. So with the help of two new friends, his uncle and a bunch of very unusual beetles, they set off to find out what happened to his dad. An intriguing mystery adventure story, packed with brilliant illustrations and facts. I recommend this to fans of Roald Dahl.

THE LITTLE BOOK OF THUNKS

By Ian Gilbert

A thunk is a simple-looking question about everyday things that stops you in your tracks and helps you start looking at the world in a whole new light.
