1. Summary of dealing with complaints

Flowchart

2. Complaints Procedure

(this policy has been informed by The Education (Independent School Standards (England)) Regulations 2014, Schedule 1, Part 7 – see Appendix B)

Introduction

The Marches Academy Trust has clear Vision and Values which build upon collaborations and aim to ensure that every Academy School within the Trust works in a productive and positive partnership with all parents and carers to realise – ‘Achievement through Caring’.

However, if a parent / carer feels that a situation has arisen that they are unhappy about then they have the right to make a complaint. All complaints made will be taken seriously and dealt with professionally in line with procedures. All parents / carers will be made aware of this policy and the procedures to follow if they wish to make a complaint.

In respect of complaints relating to the school, parents/carers should use this complaints procedure and refrain from airing any grievance or concerns on social media sites, as this could be potentially damaging to the school and our students.

This Complaints Procedure aims to be explicit and transparent to all.

2.1 Stage one: Complaint heard by staff member

The experience of the first contact between the complainant and the school can be crucial in determining whether the complaint will escalate. The staff member will try to resolve problems informally wherever possible; this informal response may be verbal or in writing. An effective response and appropriate redress will be provided to all complaints as quickly as possible depending upon the complexity of the issues raised.

It is essential that the school respects the views of a complainant who indicates that he/she would have difficulty discussing a complaint with a particular member of staff. In these cases, the Complaints Co-ordinator will refer the complainant to another designated member of staff. Where the complaint concerns the Executive Headteacher, the Complaints Co-ordinator will refer the complainant to the Chair of the Local Governing Body.

Similarly, if the member of staff directly involved feels too compromised to deal with a complaint, the designated complaints co-ordinator may consider referring the complainant to another member of staff. The member of staff may be more senior but this is not essential.

The ability to consider the complaint objectively and impartially is crucial. Where the first approach is made to a Governor, the next step would be to refer the complainant to the appropriate person and advise them about the procedure. It would be helpful if the governor did not act unilaterally on an individual complaint outside the formal procedure or be involved at the early stages in the event that they may be needed to sit on a panel at a later stage of the procedure.

2.2 Stage two: Complaint heard by headteacher

The Headteacher's influence will already have shaped the way complaints are handled in the school. At this point, the complainant may be dissatisfied with the way the complaint was handled at stage one as well as pursuing their initial complaint. The Headteacher may delegate the task of collating the information to another member of staff but not the decision on the action to be taken. If appropriate, the Headteacher will invite the complainant to a meeting. The complaint must be made in writing; a copy of the complaint form (Appendix A) can be issued for completion and return, prior to the Headteacher's decision.

2.3 Stage three: Complaint heard by the Chair of the Local Governing Body and / or the Executive Headteacher

At this point, the complainant may be dissatisfied with the way the complaint was handled at stage two. The complainant must complete the complaint form at Appendix A. The complainant may send the completed form to the Chair of the Local Governing Body and / or the Executive Headteacher of the Academy Trust giving details of the complaint and the reason why they are being requested to reconsider the decision of the School Headteacher. The Executive Headteacher may delegate the task of collating the information to another member of staff but not the decision on the action to be taken. If appropriate, the Executive Headteacher may invite the complainant to a meeting to include the Chair of the Local Governing Body.

The Executive Headteacher and / or the Chair of the Local Governing Body will consider the complaint and decide whether:

- a. to deal with the complaint directly and then write to the complainant, or
- b. to refer the complaint for consideration by the Trustees Complaints Appeal Panel.

2.4 Stage four: Complaint heard by the Trustees Complaints Appeal Panel

Complaints to be considered by the Trustees Complaints Appeal Panel will be as a result of either there being a referral from Stage Three or that the complainant has written directly to the Board of Trustees to make a complaint. The complainant must complete the complaint form at Appendix B.

The panel will be convened by the clerk and the membership will be a) three drawn from the Board of Trustees who were not directly involved in the matters detailed in the complaint and b) one member who is independent of the management and running of the academy. The panel will elect a chair when they meet. The complainant will be invited to attend the Panel meeting and may be accompanied if they wish. The general proceedings of the panel will be as agreed in the Board of Trustees Terms of Reference.

The Complaints Appeal Panel hearing is the last Trust-based stage of the complaints process and its decision will be final. If the complainant is not satisfied that their complaint has been handled properly they may contact the EFA via the school's complaints form: <https://www.education.gov.uk/form/school-complaints-form>.

Individual complaints would not be heard by the whole Board of Trustees at any stage, as this could compromise the impartiality of any panel set up for a disciplinary hearing against a member of staff following a serious complaint.

3. The timescales in working days for the procedure are:

- a. 10 working days at Stage 1 (with a further 10 working days for more complex complaints or additional time if an advocate is required);
- b. 25 working days at Stage 2 (with maximum extension to 65 days);
- c. 25 working days at Stage 3 (with maximum extension of 65 days);
- d. 30 working days to convene and hold the Trustees Complaints Appeal Panel at Stage 4;
- e. 10 working days for the Panel to issue its findings; and
- f. 15 working days for the school to respond to the findings.

The timescales place a duty on the school to act expeditiously through the procedure; this is to ensure that the complaint is dealt with as swiftly as possible.

4. The Remit of the Trustees Complaints Appeal Panel

4.1 Outcome of the appeal

The panel can:

- a. Dismiss the complaint in whole or in part.
- b. Uphold the complaint in whole or in part.
- c. Decide on the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint.
- d. Recommend changes to the school's systems or procedures to ensure that problems of a similar nature do not recur.

4.2 Conduct of the Appeal Panel

There are several points which any Trustees sitting on a complaints appeal panel needs to remember:

- a. It is important that the appeal hearing is independent and impartial and that it is seen to be so. In deciding the make-up of the panel, Trustees need to try and ensure that they are sensitive to the issues of race, gender and religious affiliation.
- b. The aim of the hearing, which needs to be held in private, will always be to resolve the complaint and achieve reconciliation between the school and the complainant. However, it has to be recognised the complainant might not be satisfied with the outcome if the hearing does not find in their favour. It may only be possible to establish the facts and make recommendations which will satisfy the complainant that his or her complaint has been taken seriously.
- c. An effective panel will acknowledge that many complainants feel nervous and inhibited in a formal setting. Parents/carers often feel emotional when discussing an issue that affects their child. The panel chair will ensure that the proceedings are as welcoming as possible. The layout of the room will set the tone and care is needed to ensure the setting is informal and not adversarial.
- d. The school should be mindful of the specific needs of children and young people, either involved in or affected by complaints and ensure that it safeguards and promotes the rights and welfare of the child or young person concerned. The best interest of the child or young person should be paramount at all times.
- e. The Trustees sitting on the panel need to be aware of the complaints procedure.

5. Roles and responsibilities

5.1 The role of the clerk

The Trustees complaints appeal panel may request clerking support. The clerk would be the contact point for the complaint and be required to:

- a. Set the date, time and venue of the hearing, ensuring that the dates are convenient to all parties and that the venue and proceedings are accessible;
- b. Collate any written material and send it to the parties in advance of the hearing (The complainant will be given the opportunity to provide any other evidence than that contained in the complaint letter);
- c. Meet and welcome the parties as they arrive at the hearing;
- d. Record the proceedings;
- e. Notify all parties of the panel's decision.

5.2 The role of the Chair of the Local Governing Body

During stage three the Chair of the Local Governing Body's role will be:

- a. To ensure that the correct procedure has been followed; and
- b. If the complaint is being referred to Stage Four, notify the clerk to arrange the Panel.

5.3 The role of the Chair of the Trustees Complaints Appeal Panel

The Chair of the Panel has a key role, ensuring that:

- a. The remit of the panel is explained to the parties and each party has the opportunity of putting their case without undue interruption;
- b. The issues are addressed;
- c. Key findings of fact are made and that any issues not previously mentioned in writing should not be raised at the meeting and, if they are mentioned at the meeting, these should not be noted or considered by the panel;
- d. Parents/carers and others who may not be used to speaking at such a hearing are put at ease;
- e. The hearing is conducted in an informal manner with each party treating the other with respect and courtesy;
- f. The panel is open minded and acting independently;
- g. No member of the panel has a vested interest in the outcome of the proceedings or any involvement in an earlier stage of the procedure;
- h. Each side is given the opportunity to state their case and ask questions;
- i. Written material is seen by all parties. If a new issue arises it would be useful to give all parties the opportunity to consider and comment on it.

6. Notification of the Panel's Decision

The Chair of the Panel needs to ensure that the complainant and, where relevant, the person complained about, is notified of the panel's findings and recommendations, in writing. The letter needs to explain that if the complainant is not satisfied that their complaint has been handled properly they may contact the EFA via the schools complaints form: <https://www.education.gov.uk/form/school-complaints-form>.

7. Checklist for a Panel Hearing

The panel needs to take the following points into account:

- a. The hearing is kept on an informal basis.
- b. Witnesses are only required to attend for the part of the hearing in which they give their evidence.
- c. After introductions, the complainant is invited to explain their complaint, and be followed by their witnesses.
- d. The Executive Headteacher / Headteacher may question both the complainant and the witnesses after each has spoken.
- e. The Executive Headteacher / Headteacher is then invited to explain the school's actions and be followed by the school's witnesses.
- f. The complainant may question both the Executive Headteacher / Headteacher and the witnesses after each has spoken.
- g. The complainant must not make personal or derogatory comments about members of staff.
- h. The Chair of the Panel reserves the right to stop any participants if personal or abusive comments are made.
- i. Questions may be asked of either party; however, this is not the forum for personal comments about individuals.
- j. The complainant cannot raise any additional issues not previously submitted.
- k. The panel may ask questions at any point.
- l. The complainant is then invited to sum up their complaint.
- m. The Executive Headteacher / Headteacher is then invited to sum up the school's actions and response to the complaint.
- n. The Chair explains that both parties will hear from the panel within a set time scale.
- o. Both parties leave together while the panel decides on the issues.

8. Dealing with persistent complaints

In the case of vexatious or persistent complaints, the Board of Trustees will inform the complainant in writing that the procedure has been exhausted and that the matter is now closed.

9. Record of complaints

The findings and recommendations of the Complaints Appeal Panel are available for inspection on the school premises by the proprietor (Chair of the Board of Trustees) and the Headteacher.

A record of all written complaints is kept together with:

- a. A record of whether they were resolved following Stages 2 and 3 or whether they proceeded to Stage 4 (Complaints Appeal Panel), and
- b. A record of actions taken by the school as a result of those complaints (regardless of whether they were upheld).

All correspondence, statements and records relating to individual complaints are to be kept confidential except where the Secretary of State or a body conducting an inspection under section 109 of the Education and Skills Act 2008 requests access to them.

Please complete and return to (Designated complaints co-ordinator) who will acknowledge receipt and explain what action will be taken.

Appendix C

All academies must have a complaints procedure. This must meet the standards set out in The Education (Independent School Standards (England)) Regulations 2014, Schedule 1, Part 7, as follows:

33. The standard about the manner in which complaints are handled is met if the proprietor ensures that a complaints procedure is drawn up and effectively implemented which deals with the handling of complaints from parents of pupils and which—

- (a) is in writing;
- (b) is made available to parents of pupils;
- (c) sets out clear time scales for the management of a complaint;
- (d) allows for a complaint to be made and considered initially on an informal basis;
- (e) where the parent is not satisfied with the response to the complaint made in accordance with sub-paragraph (d), establishes a formal procedure for the complaint to be made in writing;
- (f) where the parent is not satisfied with the response to the complaint made in accordance with sub-paragraph (e), makes provision for a hearing before a panel appointed by or on behalf of the proprietor and consisting of at least three people who were not directly involved in the matters detailed in the complaint;
- (g) ensures that, where there is a panel hearing of a complaint, one panel member is independent of the management and running of the school;
- (h) allows for a parent to attend and be accompanied at a panel hearing if they wish;
- (i) provides for the panel to make findings and recommendations and stipulates that a copy of those findings and recommendations is —
 - (i) provided to the complainant and, where relevant, the person complained about; and
 - (ii) available for inspection on the school premises by the proprietor and the head teacher;
- (j) provides for a written record to be kept of all complaints that are made in accordance with sub-paragraph (e) and
 - (i) whether they are resolved following a formal procedure, or proceed to a panel hearing; and
 - (ii) action taken by the school as a result of those complaints (regardless of whether they are upheld); and
- (k) provides that correspondence, statements and records relating to individual complaints are to be kept confidential except where the Secretary of State or a body conducting an inspection under section 109 of the Education and Skills Act 2008 requests access to them.
