“We help you find the best way to learn faster, think quicker and remember more”

Dear Parent/Carer,

On the 18th January students have the opportunity to access a number of workshops to support their Countdown to Success program. The day includes resilience sessions, revision skills and much more. The students will come in school uniform, ending their day at 14:30pm. The highlight of the day will be a talk from revision guru Karim Al-Abbas. He will share ways to improve learning and memory skills which will lead to increased self-confidence and self-esteem. Students that have worked with Karim have been empowered to start using the techniques immediately and take ownership of the way they learn. Karim always receives excellent feedback and praise from the students.

Similarly, we are excited to invite you to see Karim for yourself, an invaluable opportunity to help you support your child in the countdown to exams. As parents and carers of our Year 11 you will know that challenging times are ahead. The evening includes course information, top tips for revision and a chance to speak to Subject Directors to find out key dates and deadlines. The Year 11 team will be on hand to answer any specific questions you may have about the months ahead.

We anticipate this will be extremely popular so please book as soon as possible to avoid disappointment. You can book your places by following this link. As your child would have attended the session with Karim during the day, there is no need for them to attend the evening session, however, younger children may attend to help with childcare issues. If you are unable to prior book, you are still welcome to attend on the evening.

We hope to see you all there for what will be an essential part of your survival tool box as we countdown to success.

Yours faithfully,
Mr Kemble
Year 11 Progress Leader
