MARCHES WEEKLY BULLETIN

Dear Parents and Carers,

OFSTED

You will know that OFSTED inspected the school on Tuesday to evaluate if the school “remains good”; our thanks to all parents and carers who supported this process by completing the parent/carer survey. The team of three inspectors were very positive about the school and praised the students highly. We will of course share the formal outcomes when they arrive in up to a month’s time.

Uniform

My thanks to all parents and carers who support the school in ensuring that their child attends school in the correct uniform. We understand that there is a view that what a student wears to school makes no difference to their learning; my, ‘on the ground’, experience is that a clear uniform policy is key to students having a strong identity with the school, a sense of what the purpose of preparing to come to school is about and being in the mind-set to learn and focus. Just as many adults do who wear a uniform to work. Wearing the uniform correctly shows that a young person is engaged with and ‘signed up’ to the ethos and values of the school; they want to work with the staff at the school and are ready and prepared to do so.

It is no accident that, when a young person chooses to push against the school systems, for a range of reasons, it is often first seen in a problem with uniform; this can, in some situations, even be a ‘cry for help’ from a student who wants to catch the attention of staff when something is going badly wrong in their lives, and they do not know how to talk to someone.

Our students look smart and professional, we are proud of how they look, it sets the tone of the school and is a cornerstone of our ethos of high standards; something no good school should compromise on.

If you need support from the school in this area, please do speak to your child’s Progress Leader to see how we can help.

Mrs A Pearson, Associate Headteacher

Year 9 Boys’ Football

The Year 9 Boys’ Football team played in the semi-final of the County Cup against Bridgnorth Endowed School on Thursday night.

They played superbly and, despite being defeated 4-2, they showed terrific resilience in the second half as they were 2-0 down at half time. If it was not for some excellent defending from Kian Thomas, James Gregory and Ryan Wilcox, the scoreline could have favoured Bridgnorth much more.

Goals from Kian Thomas and Toby Gallagher-Keenan gave the Marches a chance and took the game to extra time. Unfortunately, Bridgnorth scored an incredible free kick in extra time and, as the Marches pushed for an equaliser, Bridgnorth caught them on the counter attack and added a fourth.

Next week, the boys travel to Idsall School in Shifnal where they will be playing in their second semi-final in a week in the Presidents Plate Semi-Final. Good luck boys.

Year 11

Year 11 pupils will no longer be receiving reward points due to the pupils moving their focused study tutor groups. As you are aware, forms have been changed to accommodate targeted intervention for your child. Pupils will still be eligible to attend Reward Trips which will now be judged on their lesson grading and attitude to learning in lessons.

Also, Year 11 Parents' Evening is taking place on Thursday 22nd March.

World Book Day Celebrations

With the snow holding up our World Book Day celebrations last Friday, this did not stop some pupils and staff from having a thoroughly enjoyable time dressing up as their favourite book characters on Monday.

There was a whole host of characters ranging from Gangsta Granny to Dementor, Ginny Weasley and Rita Skeeter from Harry Potter, Where's Wally? and Frozen character Anna.

Year 7 Netball Tournaments

The Year 7 girls did incredibly well to finish in 4th place in a tournament at Packwood Haugh on Wednesday.

It was a highly competitive tournament against some traditionally strong sporting schools.

They also went to another tournament at Ellesmere on Thursday where they entered a North Shropshire tournament and they were excellent as they reached the semi-finals.

The Marches team for the tournaments was Mia Poole, Evie Richards, Amelia Pyner, Mia Jenkins-Doyle, Millie Davies, Saoirse Maguire, Kayleigh Roberts and Mae Tetlow.

Year 7 Parents' Evening

Year 7 Parents' Evening is taking place on Thursday 15th March.
