

Why choose Art A Level?

If you have a flair for art and design and a passion for drawing, painting and being creative, A Level Art could be for you.

What will I study?

You will develop fine art (paint and print) skills using a variety of media, processes and techniques as well as gaining knowledge of historical and contemporary painters, styles and genres.

What career and university options can it lead to?

A number of students carry on to art schools to take Art & Design Foundation courses. Careers in the worlds of graphic design, advertising, fashion, illustration and film special effects are just a few possibilities.
