

Dear Families,

The school has been quieter this week with our Year 10 students on work experience. We have missed them but can't wait to hear about what they have been doing when they return on Monday. We have had glowing updates from the employers. We thank our community for offering such fantastic work experience places to help prepare our young people for the future.

We were lucky on Wednesday night when the rain stayed away as our Year 11 students arrived for Prom – they all looked so lovely with such happy smiles on their faces. They have worked hard for this event and deserved every minute. I will share pictures next week.

I would like to give a shout out and a massive thank you to our 'One Voice' group who have been working on a mental health project as part of our Trust Student Voice. This week they presented their project at the One Voice Showcase. They did a brilliant job and had such confidence to share their project. Picture attached of their certificate!

Hello, One Voice here again with your weekly tip to support you in the best way possible when it comes to mental health support and vocalising our thoughts and feelings. This week we would like to provide you with a website that is full of useful pages tailoring to your specific needs and how to talk to young people accordingly and specifically to their requests. This website is called "Young Minds" who's aim is "To stop young people's mental health reaching crisis point". It offers a range of resources for all ages and shows you exactly how to deal with specific situations and difficult topics you may need to discuss with them. You can find out more by visiting the Young Minds website at: <https://www.youngminds.org.uk/professional/resources/>

REMINDERS & NOTICES

Medical Society visit from a former student

Dr George Garratt, a former student at The Marches, visited our Year 12 budding medical students this week to pass on his advice on the application process and give some insight into life at Medical School.

Year 6 Transition

We welcomed our newest members to our Marches family on transition day. Here is some beautiful artwork.

Sixth Form Common Room Cushions

The Sixth Form students have been enjoying the cushions made from tote bags from the University Fair they attended.

Year 9 Artwork

Fantastic work inspired by Andy Warhol.

FOCUS

Sporting Success

Jeslie Nang-Bayi in Year 10 is a phenomenal athlete. He holds numerous school records. Here is an action shot from the high jump.
