

Progress Page

To achieve 'Expected Standard' you will be able to....

T ES

Working Towards	Expected Standard	Reaching Greater Depth
	ES2. Explain three conditions during The Middle Passage and on arrival for Africans to be sold as slaves
	ES3. Make four inferences from sources about conditions for Africans working on plantations
	ES4. Explain the significance of two key people involved in abolition from a variety of backgrounds and rank their contributions
	ES5. List reasons why Walter Tull was significant to the Black British experience
	ES6. Explain the responses of both the British population and the newcomers during the Windrush arrival
	ES7 Judge the significance of contemporary Black Britons and demonstrate changes chronologically to Black experiences
To achieve 'Greater Depth' you will be able to...		GD
	GD1. Critically analyse sources in terms of their content and provenance to make informed judgements on the usefulness of the sources regarding the slave trade and plantation life
	GD2. Effectively apply the '5 Rs' of significance to judge the most significant Black Britons and show a range of individuals with clear reasoning for their selection		