

Working Towards	Expected Standard	Reaching Greater Depth
To achieve 'Expected Standard' you will be able to....		WT ES
ES1. I can analyse how Upper and Lower class women lived their lives and make comparisons about their daily lives.
ES2. I can explain how improved education the UK led to increased equality between men and women.
ES3. I can investigate and compare the structures of NUWSS and the WSPU and explain what actions they took and why these impacted the Suffrage movement.
ES4. I can use varying sources and pieces of evidence to investigate and judge whether Emily Davison's death was a suicide or accident.
ES5. I can judge the importance of World War 1 on women's rights and justify the significance of this event using examples.
ES6. I can describe the origins of the tension between Ireland and Britain and analyse why they remain present today.
ES7. I can use criteria to define and explain the significance of individuals and events in their impact in Irish Nationalism.
ES8. I can identify and explain the causes of the Irish Potato Famine while ranking them in their impact this had on the people and their future.
ES9. I can use sources to evaluate how impactful the easter rising was in the fight for Irish independence from British rule.
To achieve 'Greater Depth' you will be able to...		GD
GD1. I can evaluate the reasons why most women gained the vote in 1918 using examples such as suffrage to justify my reasoning.
GD2. Using a criteria, I can judge the actions taken and the evaluate the significance of individuals and events in the call for Irish Nationalism.
GD3. I can justify why different groups used certain actions to secure the rights that they fought for and the evaluate the short- term and long-term consequences of these groups.		